

World Mental Health Day – 10th October

Themes	Supporting texts	Key Knowledge	Vocabulary
Week 1/2 Transition Agreed class charter	 	Focus on settling in stories, conversations and circle times during the transition period. Focus on: - Supporting and naming/describing feelings around starting school - Supporting children to make friends - Introduce the Golden Values and explain why they are important - What do the children need to feel safe and happy at school?	Change, scared, worried, talk
Week 3 Transitions & making friends We include everyone.	 	What are rules? (Pol-Ed)	New friends, include, left out, smile, hello
Week 4 Golden Values We are kind and helpful.	 	What are consequences? (Pol-Ed)	Kind, helpful, share, take turns,
Week 5 Golden Values We look after our environment and property.	 		Tidy, rubbish, classroom, outside, playground, look after, broken, lost
Week 6 Golden Values We work hard and celebrate success.			Try your best, well done, proud, happy
Week 7 Golden Values We listen and learn from each other.	     		Listen, learn, friends, new

Anti-Bullying Week – 16-20th November

Themes	Supporting texts	Key Knowledge	Enhancement ideas/experiences	Vocabulary
Week 1/2 Playing cooperatively	 	Playing cooperatively means taking turns and following the rules so that it is fair for everyone. Cooperatively- working together with someone else/others, helping each other to do something. Taking turns –is a fair way to cooperate. Following rules also helps us to cooperate.	Cooperative/turn taking games e.g puzzles, board and card games Teach ‘I went to the zoo’ game and encourage independent play During continuous provision, model language linked to ‘finding a fair solution’ and praise children for practicing this skill independently.	Cooperate Share Agree take turns rules
Week 3/4 Making friends	 	We usually make friends with someone who likes one of or some of the same things as us. Friends can have their differences too. Friends do kind things for each other, like sharing, helping and saying things to make each other laugh. It’s okay to play with different friends and its also ok to have a special friend that you play with most of the time.	Anti- bullying week 	Friend Friendship Playmate getting alone
Week 5/6 Resolving conflict	  	Sometimes friends might disagree with each other or fall out. This is normal. It is normally because friends can’t find a fair solution. Even if someone is upset or cross, it’s never okay to hurt someone else or say something to upset them. Friends can find a solution that e everyone feels is fair. Sometimes, you may need an adult to help, especially if someone is hurt or upset.		Fair solution Conflict Argue Disagree Agree work out Problem falling out equal